

John Wesley Witt
Wagon Post Office

— North 300 West
Heber, Utah

itor is a column for the public to voice their
The Editor must be submitted prior and must bear the signature, full name and Names may be withheld on request. Write letter in two weeks. Please no endorsements All be given to short, typewritten (double using the use of the writer's name. All letters Mail to: EDITOR, P.O. BOX 128, HEBER sions in tion isn't

to accom-
spect ap-

his status
atch High
st ambi-
when it
people
music,
help raise

ports in ing bring pk never in themselves.

We are sure that the young people, as well as their parents, support and love him for the great leadership ability he possesses.

The high school production "Oklahoma," involved so many students and was so well done that one would think it was fresh off Broadway. If you missed it, you missed out on a wonderful evening of entertainment.

Thank you, Mr. Brad Thomson, for being the great teacher that you are, and thanks to Elizabeth for being such a supportive wife.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Moulton

Oil Leads To Travel Thief

to the office
take worth Creeper
ided the alleged ies are they
and the ording
was a Creeper
avel in

Vandals also threw dirt and rocks on two vehicles in Charleston, on an old Chevrolet truck and the other a late model Ranger. The Ranger door was damaged, but no estimate of the cost for repairs was available.

Heber City police broke up a drinking party involving juveniles the night of Nov. 11. The party was held in one of the juvenile's private home, while the parents were out of town. All but three of the party-goers fled, according to Matthews. They were charged with illegal consumption and possession

This old custom went out with the hitching post at the front gate. The free lunch at the saloon bar, and free transportation, with the jolly, gay traveling salesman or "drummer" all went along together. All three were popular treats in those days, and the "bounden" duty of drinks and food for the customer, established a reputation of the happy-go-lucky "drummer" with "a girl in every town" and an "expense account" which was provided for this "emissary of goodwill" by the company he represented.

The Store on Wheels